THIS IS OUR LIFE AT KENTUCKY STATE COLLEGE

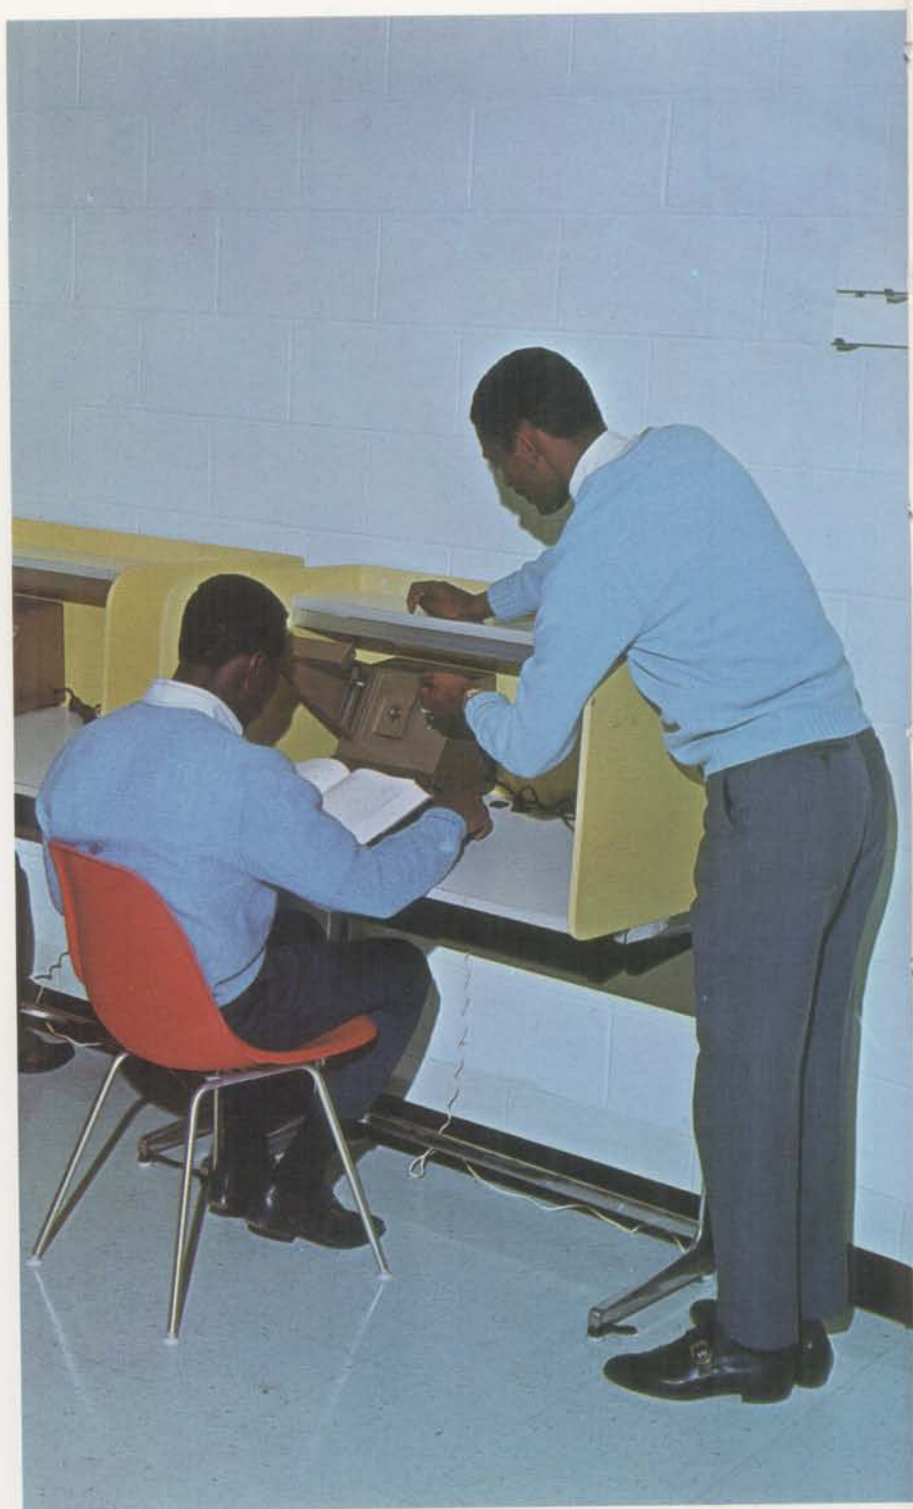

The college experience is indeed a very personal one. The task of portraying life at Kentucky State College pictorially would not only be impossible, but ridiculous. In the coming year, perhaps a few of these pictures may spark and rekindle thoughts of Kentucky State College as you have experienced it.

Our lives are many and varied. The various activities provide the individual with a unified outlet for his particular interests.

Intellectual Lfe. . . .

Intellectual life at Kentucky State College is to know, that we may understand.

LIFE ON CAMPUS

The gregarious nature of young people is an accepted element in our society. It is only natural for students to seek each other's companionship, friendship and loyalty for associations formed on campus are valuable additions to one's college experience.

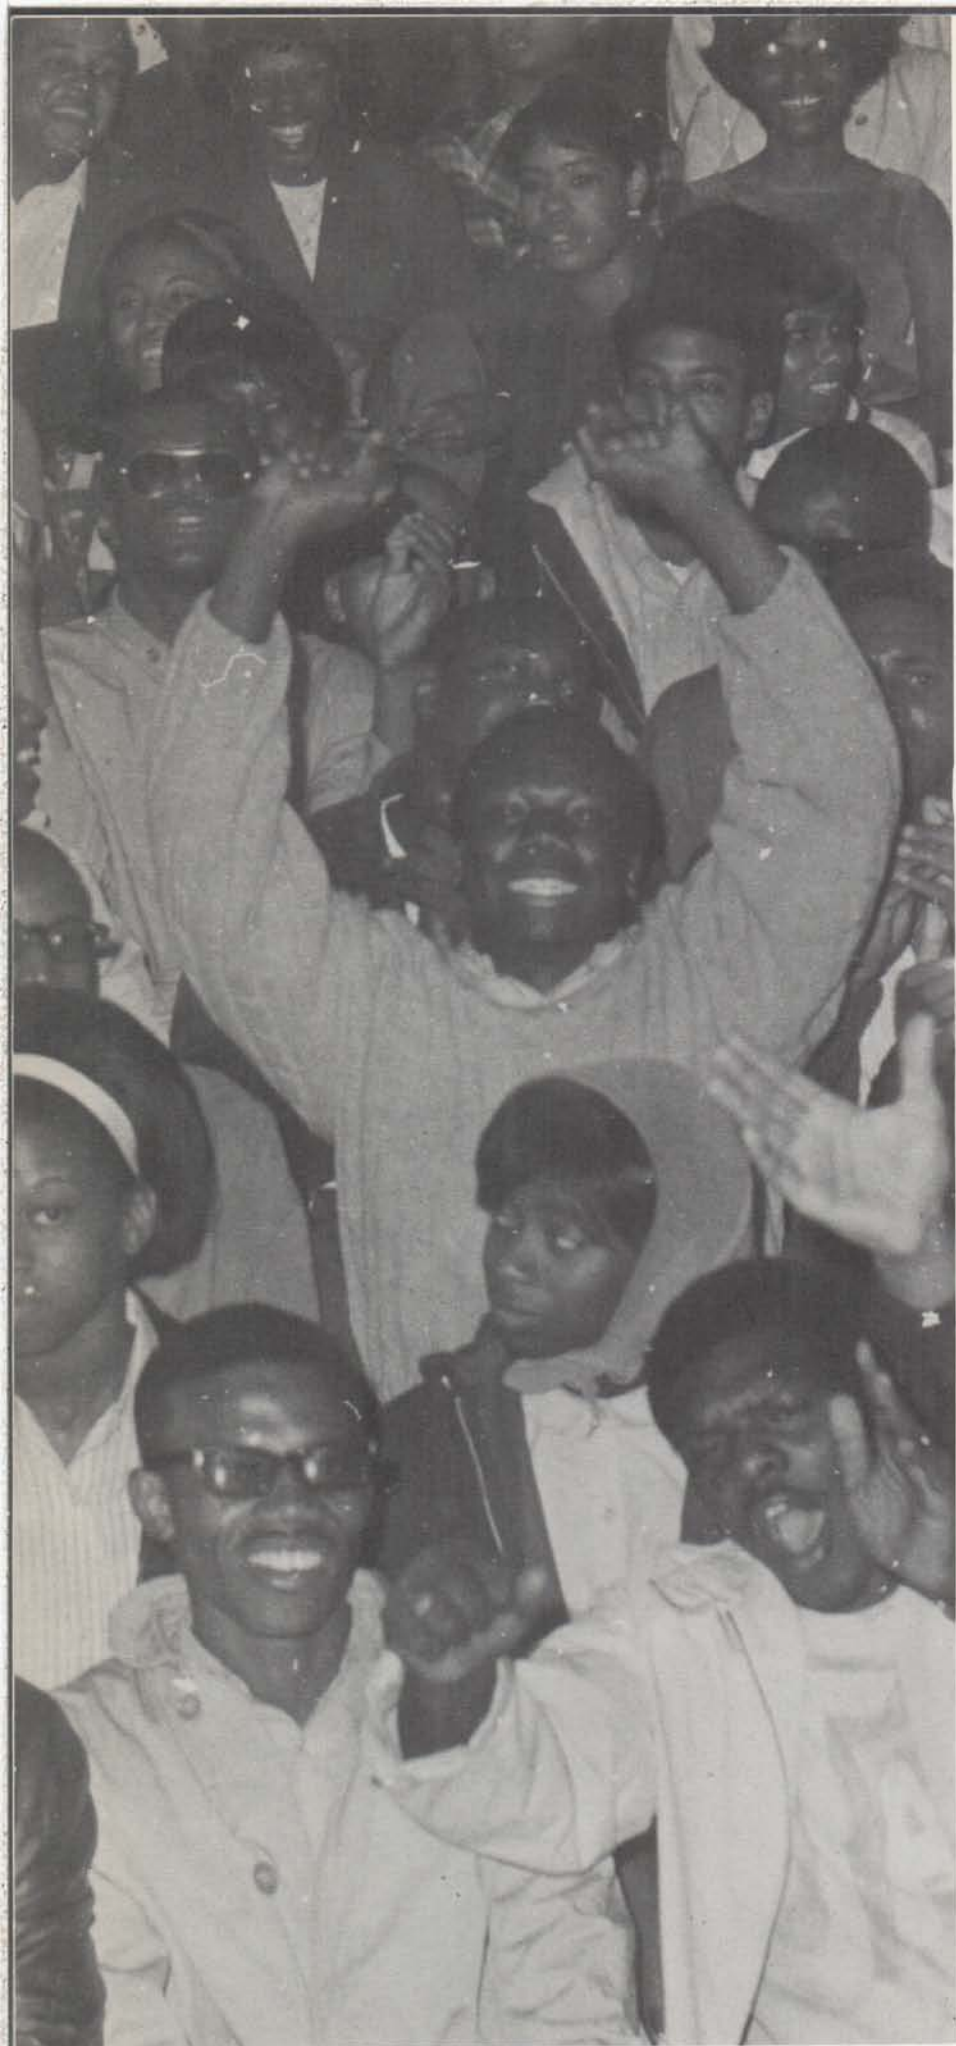

Some of our time is spent on campus reading, looking at sports events, participating in various organizations, and of course—studying.

ORGANIZATIONAL LIFE

Activity with a purpose is the aim of Kentucky State College's various organizations. At our college, one does not find overactivity nor inactivity: however, one does find activity. The various activities provide the individual with a useful outlet for his particular interests during his college career.

An assignment is made—a problem must be solved. The student, the pupil or the candidate looks more nearly at the solution. On the contrary, this is given merely as a device to stimulate and arouse the curiosity for learning. This is the act of the “wise teacher.”

Such a wise teacher is among us at Kentucky State College. She has been exposed to the illustrious educational heights that have enabled her to appreciate with fullness upper divisions of our elementary grades as we practice at Rosenwald Laboratory School and as we now appreciate through our challenging roles in our Department of Education. This mentor has tasted the honey of learning.

Traditionally, though this may be, a review of her past is revealed as indicated. A native of Frankfort, she roamed the halls of the former Clinton High School and was awarded a degree from our illustrious institution. This taste of honey shot into her veins—projected her into the city—New York, where she enjoyed the ivy walls of Columbia University to another Bachelor's degree; and a longing to remain in that city enabled her to attain an M.A. degree from New York City College, now the City University of New York.

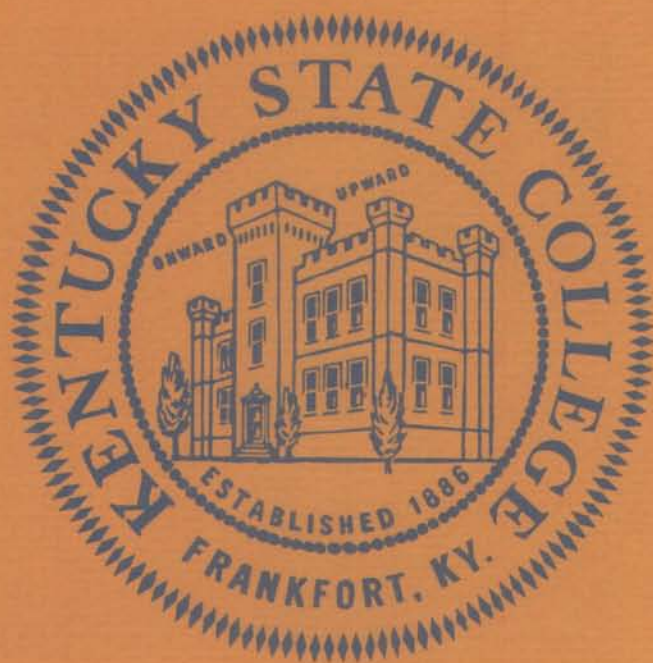

The empire state has now become a part of this person and the velvet flow of knowledge promulgated up the Hudson to the University of Syracuse and further study. This heavenly taste was not sufficient. The International flavor had to be added from McGill University in Montreal, Canada.

But what is satisfaction? Man in his search for knowledge is never satisfied. More studies at the University of Cincinnati; and to complete the cosmopolitan flavor, the University of Kentucky. Since that time, she has returned for more studies repeatedly at her Syracuse.

With all this knowledge, service becomes a greater pleasure. The yearning desire to impart knowledge—the great ecstasy and appreciation watching growth—the challenge to the eager mind and the continuous effervescent activity of youth around her—has made her blossom with more service and even greater pleasure. Girl Scout Troops have shared this joy—the Student Education Association has become wiser from her council, the Baptist Union Board has sought her advice. Yes, all persons have longingly looked to her for more wisdom and for strength.

With these as few laurels, we find no greater achievement than to dedicate this our 1968 THOROBRED to our beloved Miss Pattye L. Simpson.

NEW CAREER OPPORTUNITIES CONFERENCE

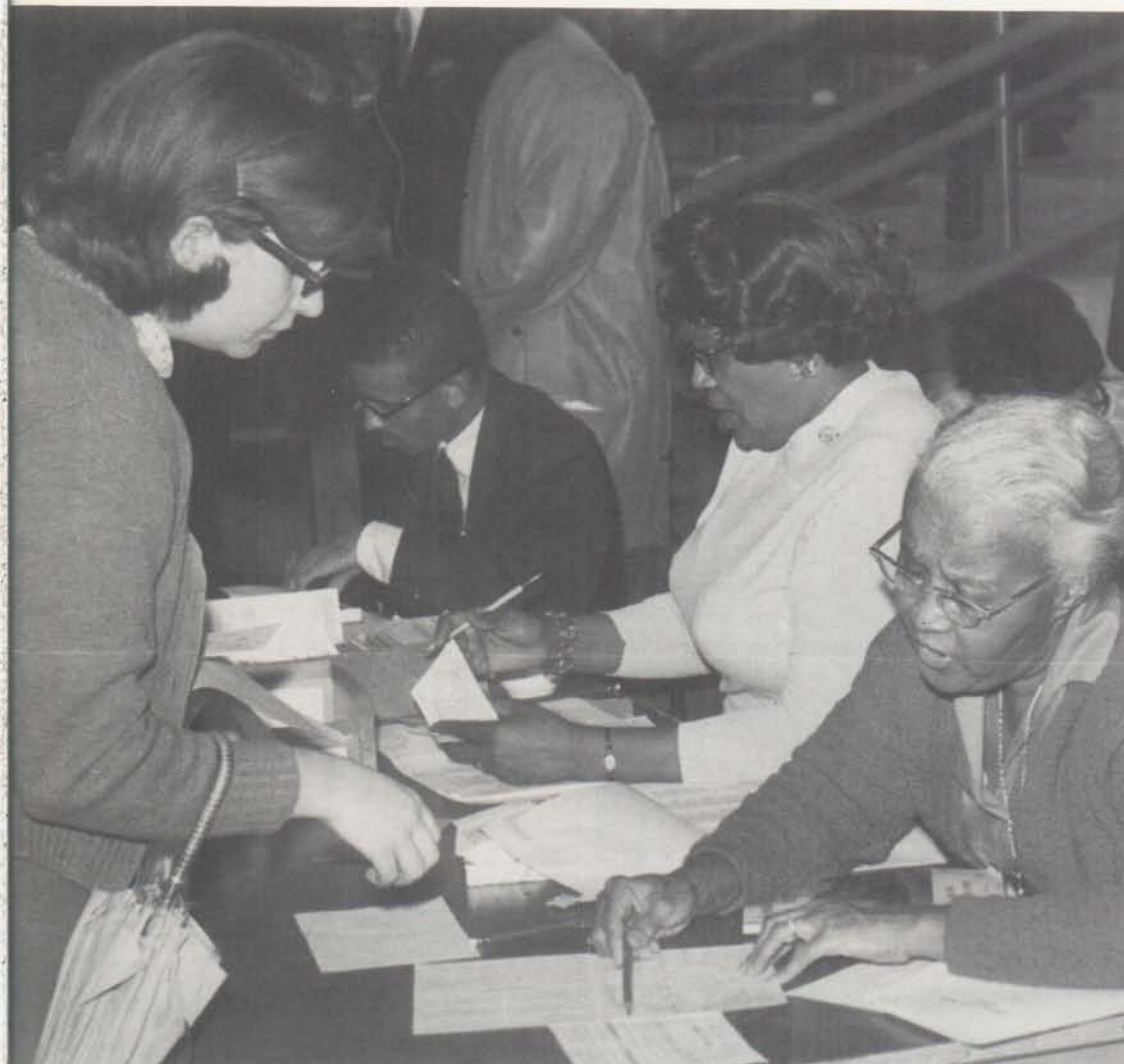

REGISTRATION

Are you sure you can handle business?

So this is what an orgy looks like . . .

I said 'T' as in the Temptations.

We'll never get out of here.

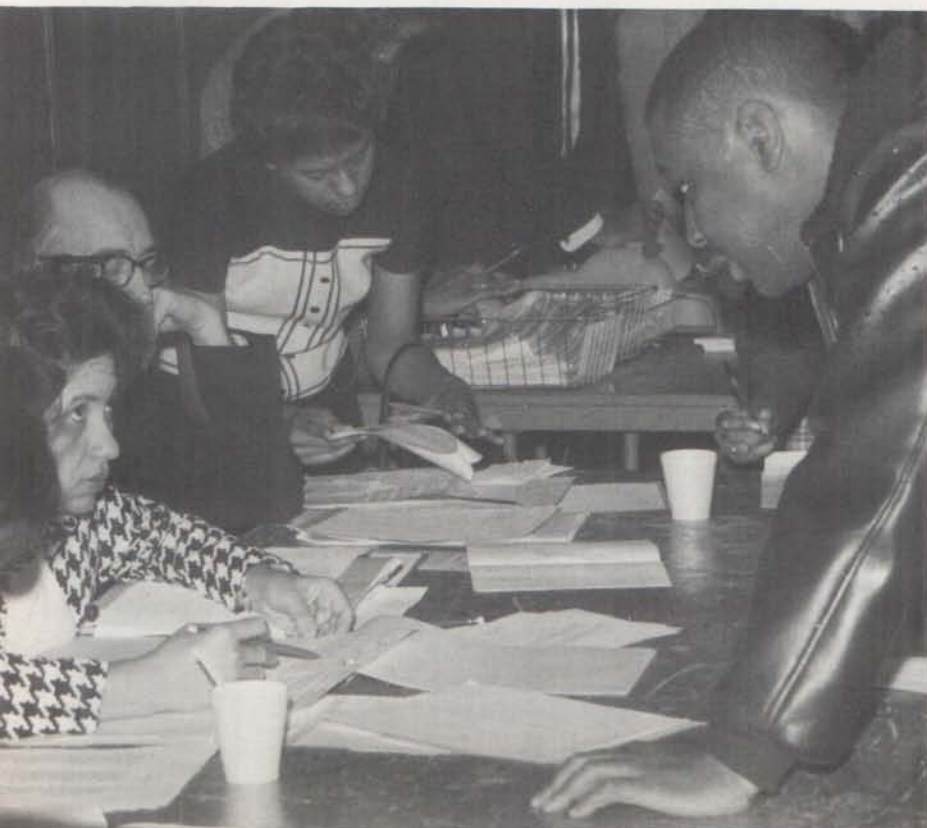

What do you mean you don't offer English 99?

I didn't cut in front of this line, she did.

I know I can handle twenty-five hours.

Now let's make sure we have all our classes together.

MARCHING BAND

Presenting the Kentucky State College marching band.

We're the Soul Men.

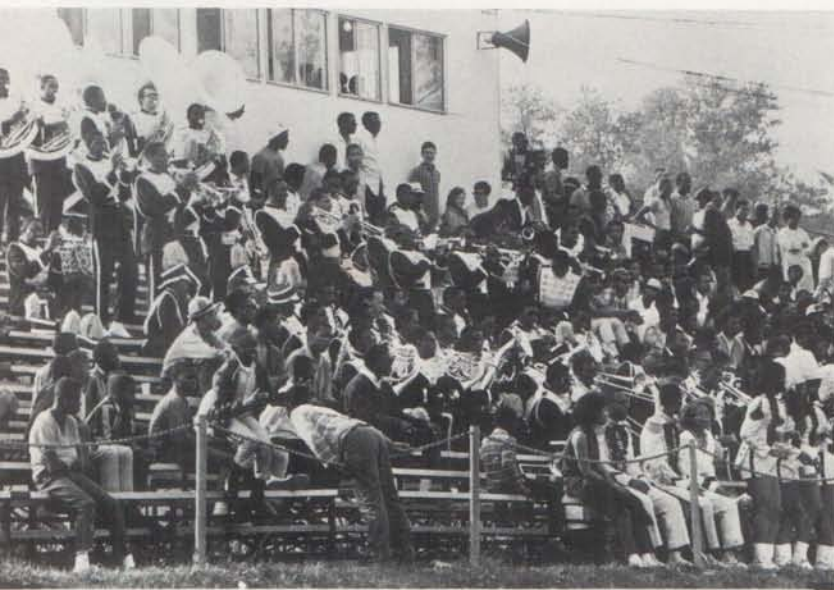

We step even after the games.

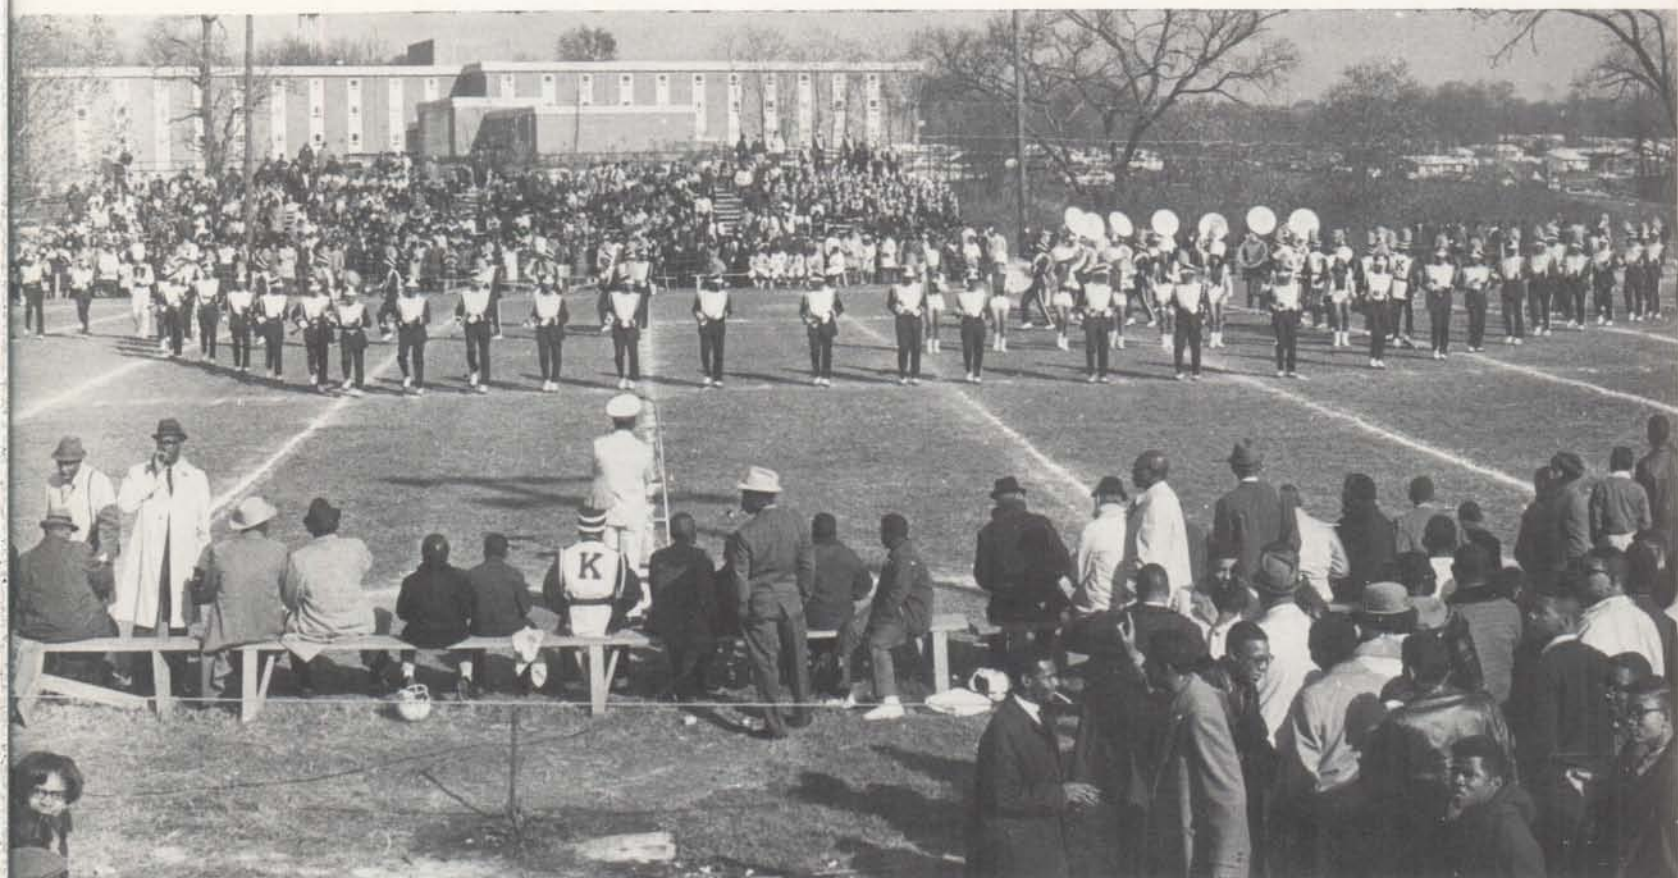

Dynamic!! Yes we are.

They maintain the spirit at the games.

Baby, make that turn slow and easy.

Here they come to play a boss sound.

We're coming too.

Okay everyone on three.

Formations make our audiences come alive.

Too much isn't she?

Keeping the beat until the end.

CHORUS

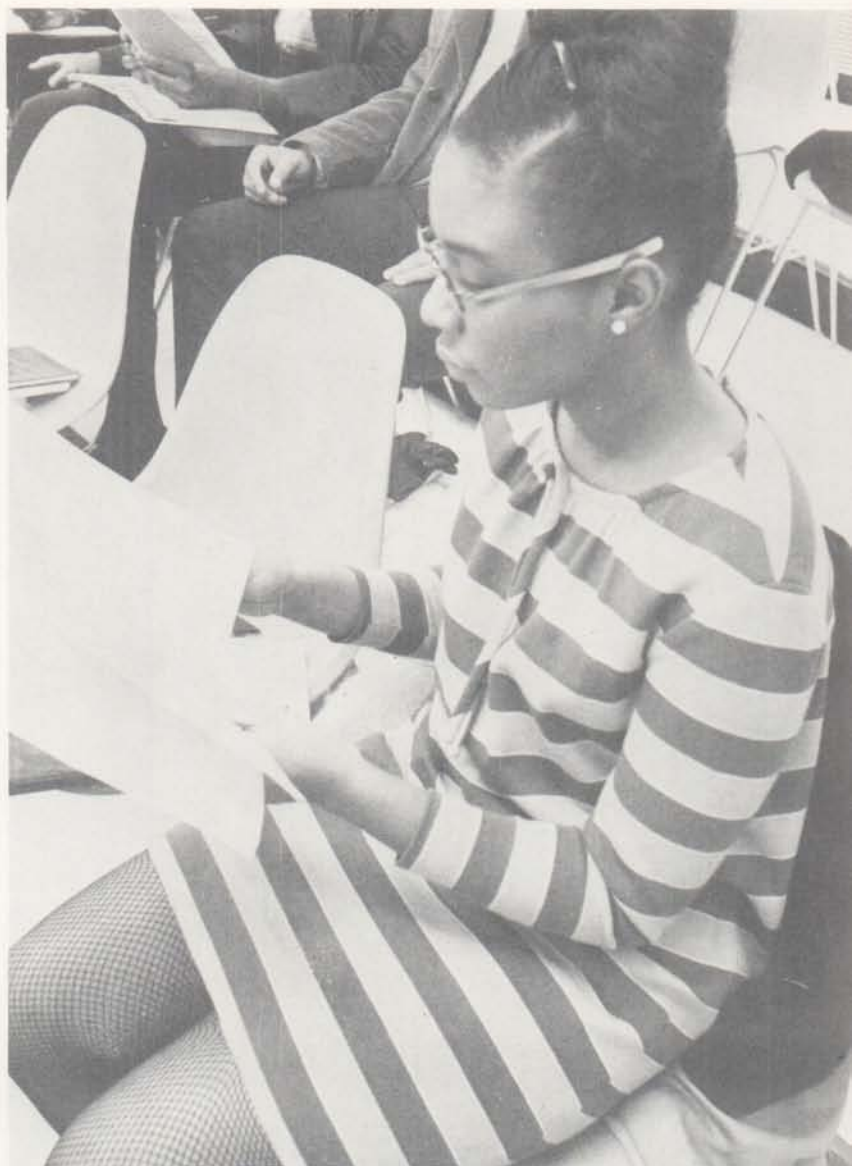

Now what part am I supposed to sing?

Practice makes perfect.

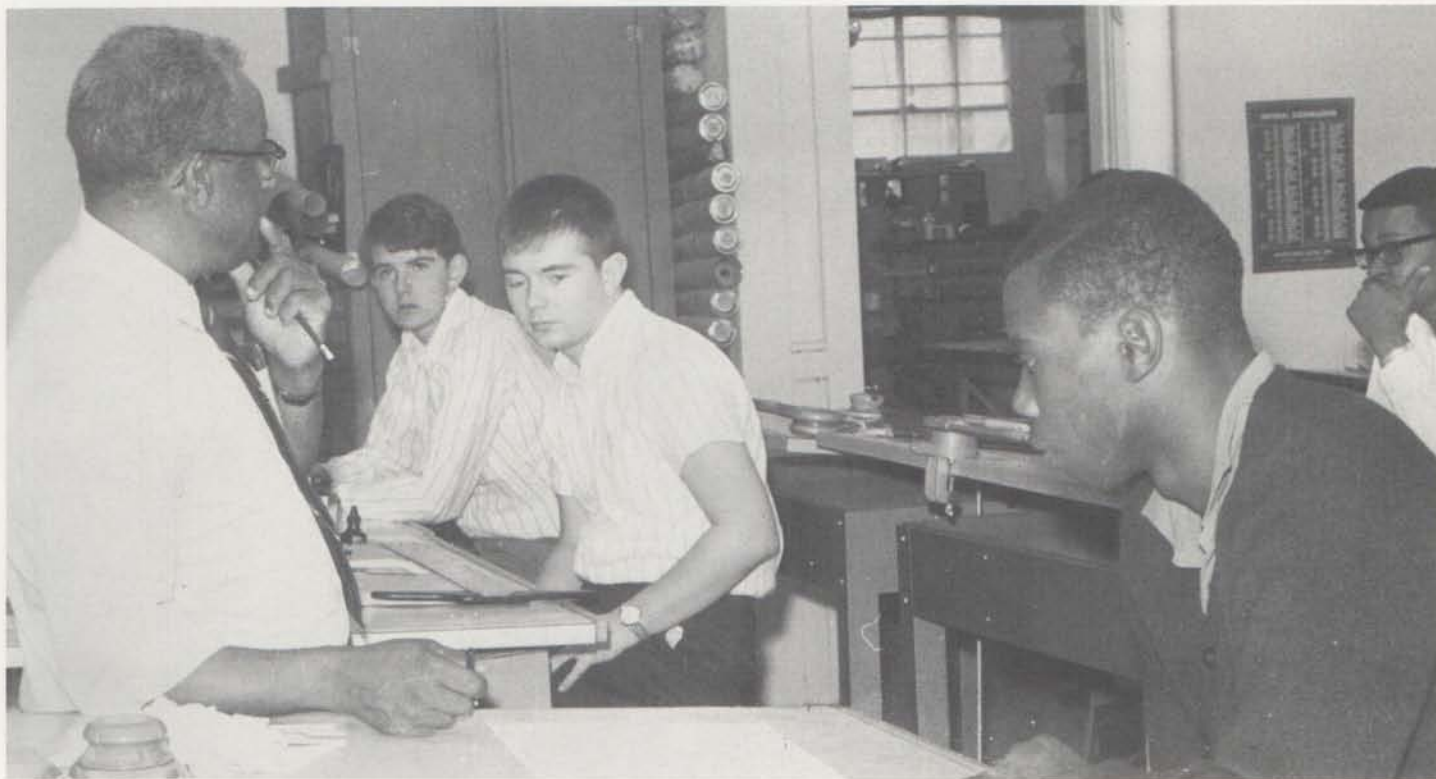

It would help if I could read music.

A rare moment.

THE EMERGENCE OF ATHLETIC INNOVATION

Athletics at Kentucky State College has begun its uprising toward a change—a change that will represent a “Thorobred dynasty” in future years. This upheaval in athletics is presently being spearheaded by a quartet of dynamic head coaches who are guiding the reins toward victory after victory. Each “jockey” has made his commitment to open up around his turn to win the race for athletic prominence.

In the winner’s circle we have:

DR. WILLIAM EXUM
Athletic Director

Coach Charles Bates Coach Charles Bates is a native of Birmingham, Alabama. He played college ball at Alabama A & M College. Bates earned his graduate degree at the University of Kentucky. While playing at Alabama A & M College, he made the S.I.A.C. team as a tackle. Bates has had professional football years with the Chicago Bears and the New York Titans. He served three years as defensive coach here and after a year at Southern University, he returned as Head Coach of the Kentucky State THOROBREDS.

Coach Lucias Mitchell Coach Lucias Mitchell is beginning his first year as coach of the “Thorobreds,” and his fifth year as head coach of a college team. He received his undergraduate degree at Jackson State College where he earned four letters in basketball as a forward. Mitchell holds a Master’s Degree in Health and Safety from Indiana University, and has done additional study at the same institution.

Coach Kenneth Gibson Coach Kenneth Gibson is a native of Brooklyn, New York. He is a graduate of Indiana University where he also received his graduate degree. He served as head track coach at Florida A & M for two years where he won one S.I.A.C. championship. Kentucky State College was his choice with seven years of coaching experience.

Coach Robert D. Williams Coach Robert “Plug” Williams is a native of Frankfort, Kentucky. He is a graduate of Kentucky State College where he played football and earned a varsity letter in basketball. Williams earned his graduate degree from Indiana University. He is presently an active reserve with the United States Army where he holds the rank of Major.

1967 THOROBRED FOOTBALL SQUAD

FOOTBALL

"The Thorobred Renaissance"

The 1967 Thorobred football squad, after a disappointing finish in 1966, began its quest toward a new look. Under the able direction of ex-pro and new Head Coach Charles Bates, the Thorobreds began their move toward the top by compiling a season record of 5-3-1. The future promises to be even more exciting with the recruiting of strong freshmen and a tough competitive schedule.

1967-68 TRACK TEAM

TRACK

Under the able leadership of Coach Kenneth Gibson, a graduate of Indiana University, the Kentucky State College track team is expected to gain and retain a dynasty in track and field to the like of which there has been no equal. In a personal interview, Coach Gibson stated that the team is exceptionally strong in the mile relay, sprints, and short distances; but that there is a need for marked improvement in the longer distances.

In the track meets thus far participated in, we have been well represented by the likes of Craig Wallace (World Record Holder in the 60-yard dash) and Clarence "The Ghost" Ray, who will most likely receive an offer to take part in the 1968 Summer Olympics in Mexico City, Mexico.

BASEBALL

The 1968 Thorobred baseball squad spotlights one of the most potentially power-packed teams ever. The return of seven regulars from last year's line-up provides a solid foundation to support the rookies with no collegiate experience. Opposing teams beware, and professional scouts smile; the Thorobreds have the green light and are swinging away.

PRESIDENT

There is more to operating a good college than mere classroom instruction. Although the classroom is the basic part of Kentucky State College, the rules by which the classroom functions, the buildings in which the classrooms are housed, and the students who partake of the classroom instruction are all the responsibility of the administration; however, with such leadership as Dr. Carl M. Hill, the direction of our college is moving forward—with deliberate speed.

"High school was never like this"

"Is this the first day of class?"

HUMOR

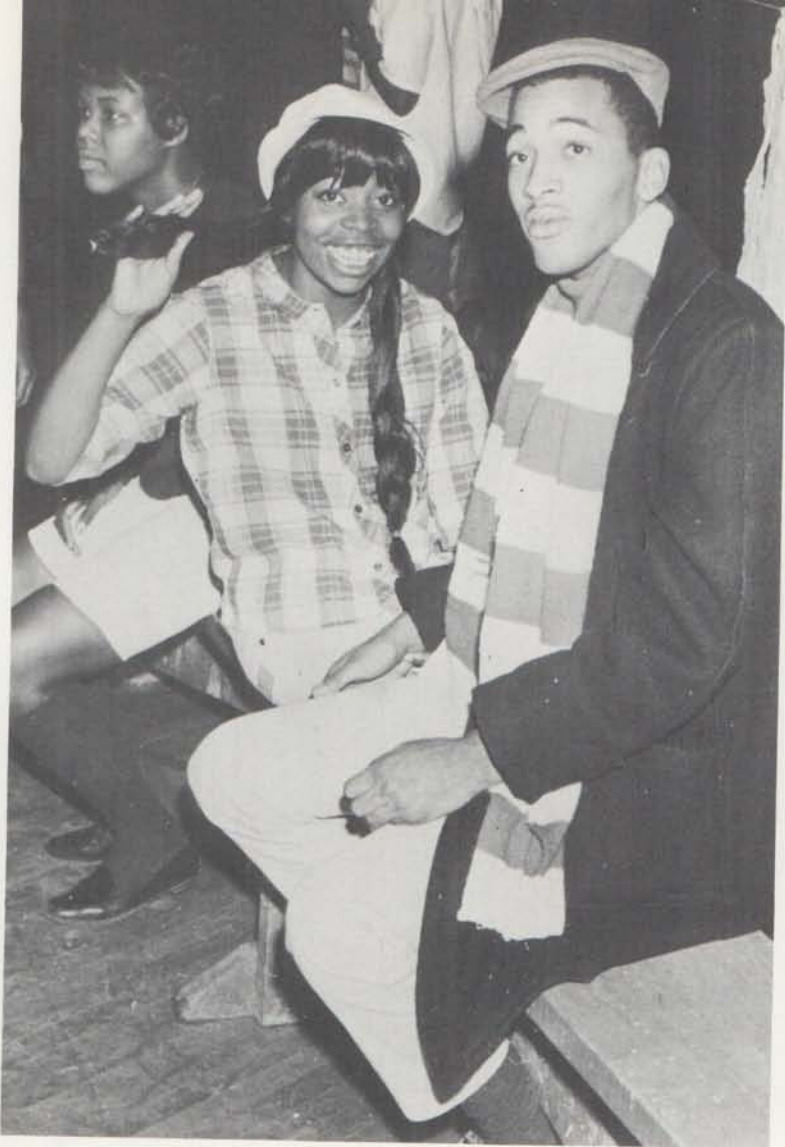

I didn't mean to run into the goal post.

Sadie Hawkins Day is sometimes fun . . .

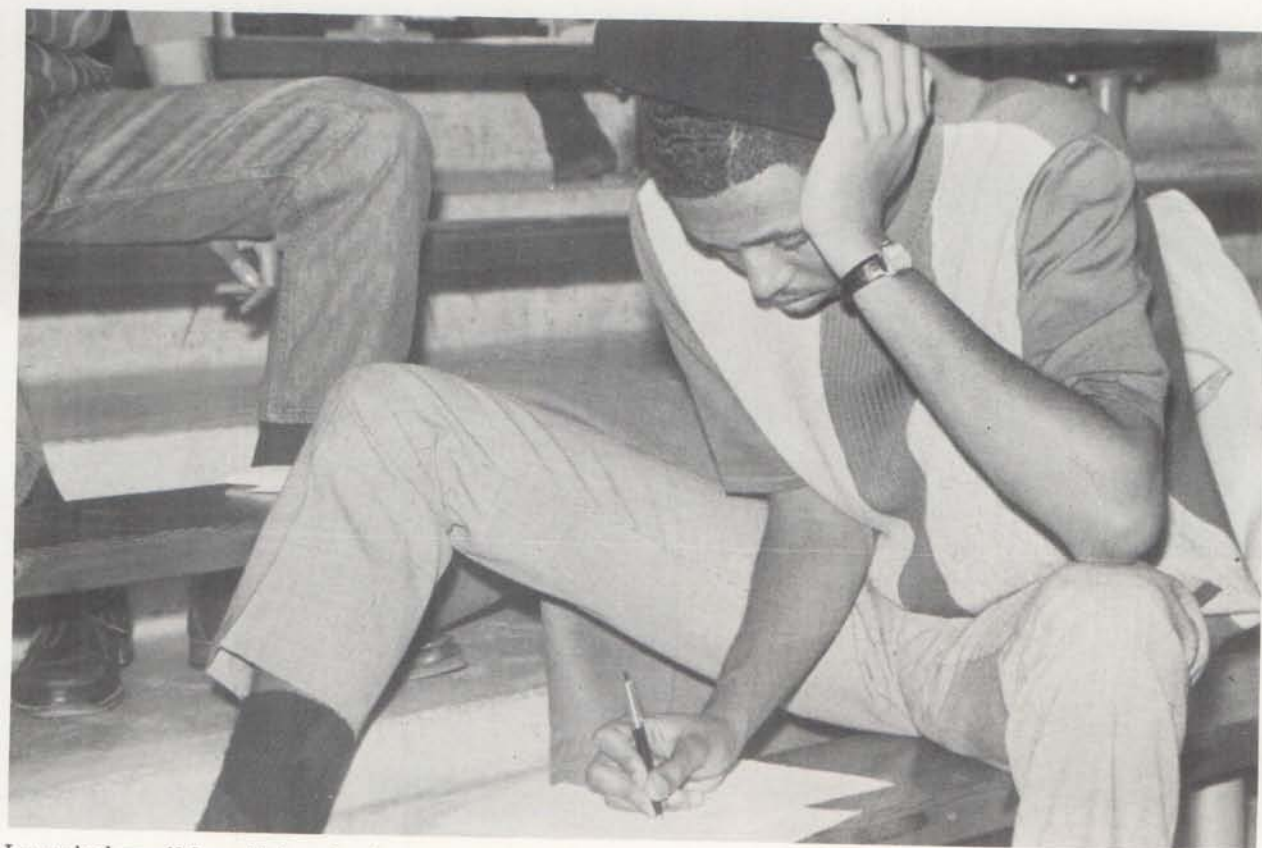

You're my cup of tea.

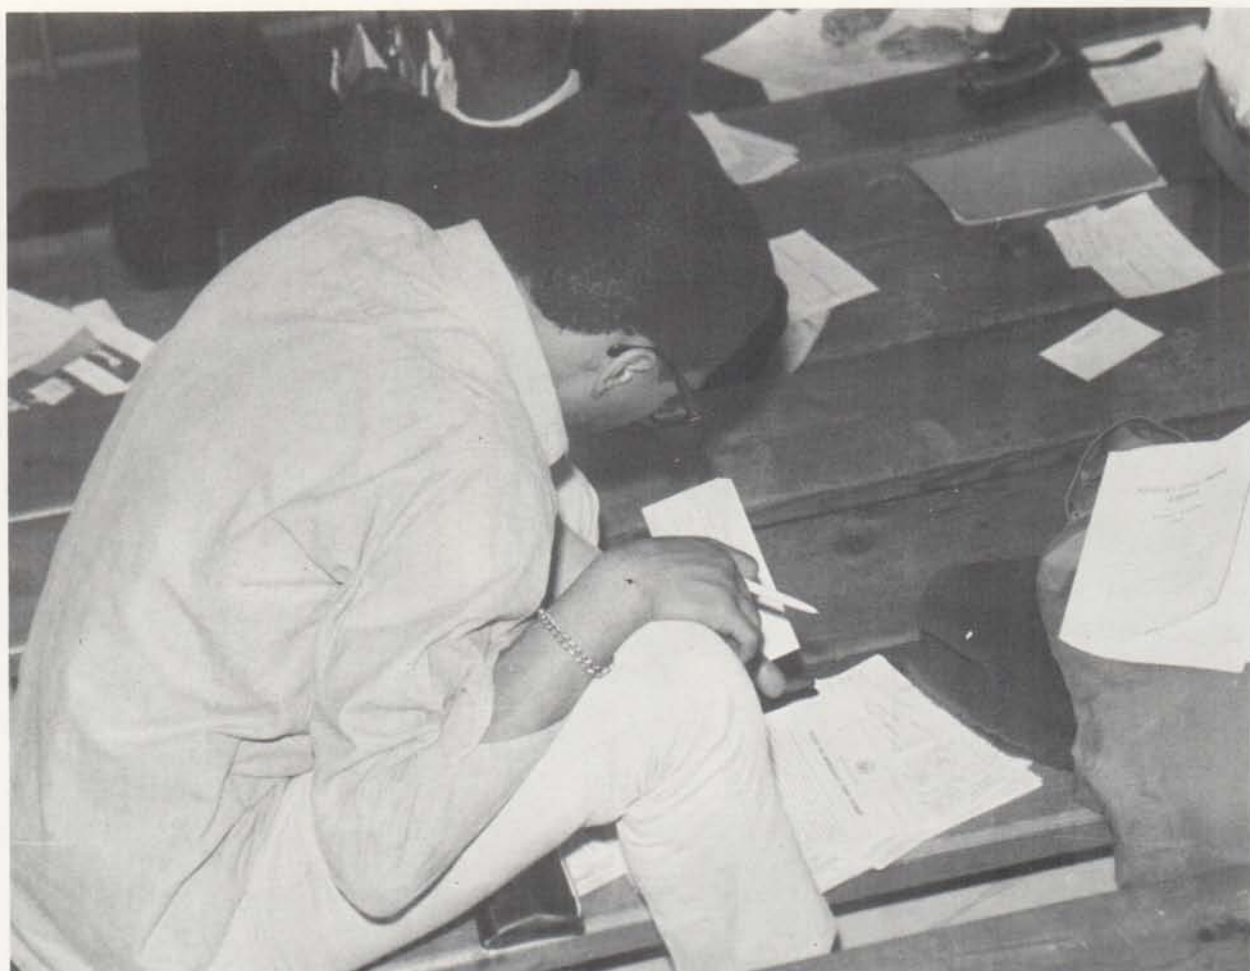

Look mom, no cavities.

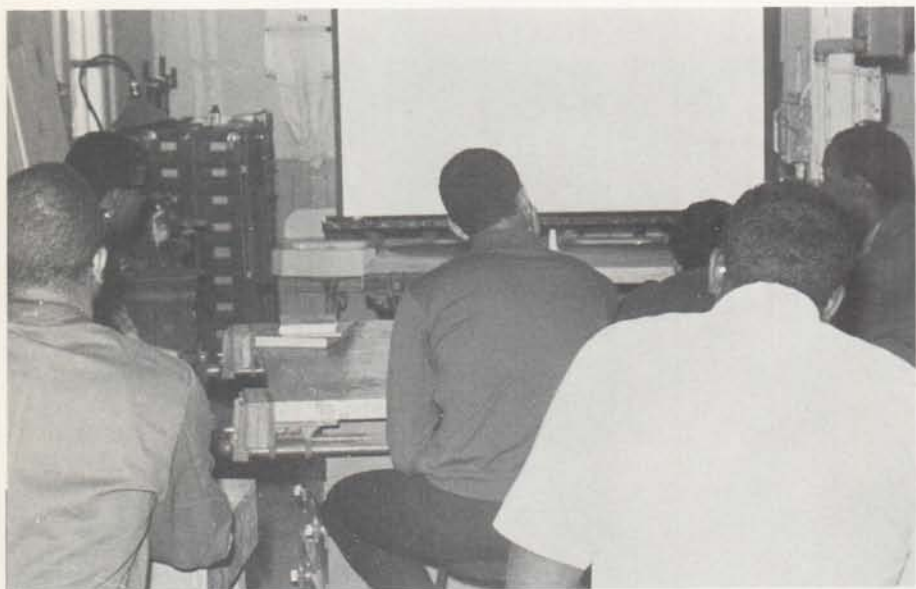

You can have my ship, I'm not going out in that mud.

I promised myself I wouldn't make the same mistake three times.

I wonder what will happen if I don't fill out this 109 form . . .

Well, Where's the movie?

I miss him so much.

I didn't mind coming, but this is ridiculous.

Looks like I'll have to make a trip to the store tonight.

Are they digging us?

Looks like they are.

Let's make sure we get seats in the back this time.

We don't want to become firemen.

You think he'll come and sit with us?

Start with my company and we'll start you as a . . .

Are they Buster Brown's?

Everything is uptight, but insight.

I wonder if I can get time for the next dance?

What did you say about my car?

Who's that sleeping behind that paper?

Looks like there is something under this piece of meat . . .

So you want to be in my class again?

And to think I came to college.

This is wrong, you have to do this all over again.

If they knock me down one more time . . .

There's nothing like school spirit.

Where is your thumb?

Blue power, brother.

He let us out on time today.

Gosh I hate this walk.

And Uncle Sam wants us???

If I get a conflict one more time I'll— . . .

Next year's basketball team.

Yes Darling.

You never know how you look until you get your picture took.

Kentucky State College, our life still goes on.
